Mette and Franca are hosting 25 African first ladies in NYC around their "[REDACTED] for development" mission, coinciding w un stuff I think?

Its not as vacuous as it sounds but it also isn't super well conceived. Good intentions.

Was wondering if you would or could consider hosting maybe an evening or afternoon event to support it but more to enjoy the first ladies.

If you would be the host or venue I (or Boris and I) could host as young global leaders.
