Subject: problem

Had horrible few hours. It is a second worse day in my life.

Same shit with my eyes again (but worse).

Got the best specialist in the area in 30minm expedited admission, dx and injection of lucentis.

There is nothing to be done right now but just wait and see.

All happened in 4h. It started around 3pm today.

Going to sleep right now – took two ambiens.

I am planning to do everything what I originally planned. Tmr board mtg, a second mtg wth Brook, and flight to PBI.

Told Mette same,

There is a small chance that I wake up tmr early and feel that I can't handle it well – in which case I will go back to Seattle. I hope this will not happened/
